FROM YOUR PASTOR

Today’s readings highlight what we must do to relate with God. It is to keep the Commandment of God. The Commandment is to love the Lord all the days of our lives.

In the Gospel reading, Jesus affirms that loving God is the first Commandment, and that Commandment is complete in loving our neighbors. In order to express our true love for the Lord we must be ready to love our neighbors as well. Our neighbors are people belonging to other faiths, nationalities, race etc. The love that Jesus speaks of is greater than any other religious rituals, offerings and sacrifices.

In today’s world, the challenge we face is to be communitarian in our deeds, in spite of all the popular culture that promotes individualism. Love is manifested in actions. Building a good relationship with one another is the need of the hour. Therefore, when we say, “I love and honor God”, it necessarily means that I do something good for my neighbors. Giving oneself for others is the ultimate sacrifice as Jesus himself gives up his own life for others.

Let us ask God to give us the grace to open ourselves into a good relationship with one another.

Sincerely in Our Lord

REV. S. LUCAS MSC

Pastor, St. John the Baptist Parish

POPE FRANCIS’ PRAYER FOR PEACE

Lord God of peace, hear our prayer!

We have tried so many times and over so many years to resolve our conflicts by our own powers and by the force of our arms. How many moments of hostility and darkness have we experienced; how much blood has been shed; how many lives have been shattered; how many hopes have been buried... But our efforts have been in vain.

Now, Lord, come to our aid! Grant us peace, teach us peace; guide us to our steps in the way of peace. Open our eyes and our hearts and give us the courage to say: "Never again war!"; "With war everything is lost". Instill in our hearts the courage to take concrete steps to achieve peace.

Lord, God of Abraham, God of the Prophets, God of Love, you created us and you call us to live as brothers and sisters. Give us the strength daily to be instruments of peace; enable us to see everyone who crosses our path as our brother or sister. Make us sensitive to the plea of our citizens who entreat us to turn our weapons of war into implements of peace, our trepidation into confident trust, and our quarreling into forgiveness.

Keep alive within us the flame of hope, so that with patience and perseverance we may opt for dialogue and reconciliation. In this way may peace triumph at last, and may the words "division", "hatred" and "war" be banished from the heart of every man and woman. Lord, defuse the violence of our tongues and our hands. Renew our hearts and minds, so that the word which always brings us together will be "brother", and our way of life will always be that of: Shalom, Peace, Salaam! Amen.
