A PRAYER FOR PEACE

O Jesus! My Lord and My God! I trust in you, O Prince of Peace!

I pray that you will help all people of this world to be united as one with You as Our Lord and Savior!

Jesus, I trust in You!

From Your Pastor-

Today, we celebrate one of the feasts that commemorates, not a saint or a biblical event but a building, the Lateran

Basilica in Rome. It's the oldest of the four major basilicas in Rome and serves as the official "home" of the pope, the seat of the bishop of Rome.

Today's feast is much more than just a happy celebration of the dedication and consecration of this magnificent Archbasilica. The Scripture passages point out the true meaning of God's churches and the temples in which He dwells in this world.

The churches of God are not just physical buildings. It is the people; it is you and me who make the churches. "You are God's building," Paul writes to the Corinthians. "You are the temple of God and the Spirit dwells in you." Therefore, let us all then, every moment, strive to live an authentic Christian life, by devoting ourselves to God, deepening our relationship with Him through prayer and charity, by serving our brothers and sisters who are in need, giving our time, attention, love, care, compassion and help wherever it is needed.

Seek the Lord to help each of us, to keep the sanctity of the temples of His Holy Presence that all of us as Christians may be a worthy House of God, where He dwells, just as He resides in all our chapels, churches, Basilicas, and Cathedrals.

Lord bless all of us that we may always strive to keep ourselves a safe and worthy place for your Spirit to dwell in.

Yours in Jesus Christ

Rev. S. Lucas, MSC

Pastor, St. John the Baptist Parish

A Message from Regina Academy at St. John the Baptist

Greetings from Across Campus

This week at the Academy has been filled with energy, growth, and grace. In gym class, our students have been diving deep into the meaning of good sportsmanship, guided by the steady leadership of Mr. Al Patton. Through lessons in fairness, humility, perseverance, respect, and self-control, our children are learning that virtue isn't just practiced on the court, it's lived in every moment. Their enthusiasm is contagious, and it's a joy to witness their transformation into kind, respectful young disciples of Christ.

We also celebrated a major milestone: our 7th Annual Donum a Deo Gala. Friday evening was nothing short of extraordinary. Families, friends, and supporters gathered for a night of joyful community, spirited bidding, and shared purpose. From breathtaking auction items to the surprise $10,000 raffle winner, the evening was filled with laughter, generosity, and heartfelt connection. It was a beautiful reminder that when we come together in faith, we build something lasting.

To our parish family: thank you. Your prayers, presence, and support continue to strengthen the mission of Regina Academy. You are helping us form not just students, but saints in the making.

God bless,

Brian Dulin, President
