From Your Pastor-

Think of the moments you waited for somebody or something. How did you feel? Were you happy to wait? Waiting is not an easy job. It needs tremendous patience. Even while waiting, one needs to be watchful. For instance, waiting for a bus, one fails to see it when it arrives. What happens is, one misses the bus.

The First Week of Advent invites us to be patient and vigilant to receive the Lord. People without deep faith cannot wait long. It is only the faithful that can wait till the end. One needs enough and more courage and readiness to wait for the Lord and receive him at an unexpected time. Moreover, it is the grace of being able to recognize our Lord, who comes to us every day through persons we come across.

Have you not Heard His Silent Steps? He comes... comes... ever comes!

How to stay vigilant with patience for receiving the Lord? To be vigilant to receive the Lord is not an external act but purely spiritual. On the contrary, today the current scenario depicts staying vigilant for the Lord means external preparations such as renovation of a house, sprucing up premises of a church, adorning the church with decorations, etc.

All these are pointless and meaningless when one fails to prepare oneself internally ready for holding the babe Jesus. This is spiritual readiness. Let us purify our hearts with love, peace, and joy.

Let us pray for grace to be vigilant and patient for receiving the Lord.

Yours in Jesus Christ,

Rev. S. Lucas, MSC

Pastor, St. John the Baptist Parish

A Message from The Regina Academy
at St. John the Baptist

Greetings from Across Campus

On behalf of all the students and staff at Regina Academy, we pray that your Thanksgiving was filled with joy, gratitude, and cherished moments with loved ones. Here on campus, our week was marked by traditions that bring both laughter and faith to life.

Our students delighted in the much-loved Turkey Bowl, a spirited game that has become a highlight of the season. The energy was contagious, and every play reminded us that competition, when rooted in respect and joy, is a celebration of community. I had the privilege of refereeing, and let's just say, there were plenty of close calls that kept everyone on their toes!

As we turn our hearts toward Advent, our families gathered for a wreath-making workshop, crafting beautiful symbols of hope and anticipation to carry into their homes. These wreaths will serve as daily reminders that Christ is the light we await and the gift we prepare to receive.

Our children also began the beloved tradition of the Jesse Tree, adorning it each day with ornaments that tell the story of salvation history. Through this practice, they learn that the birth of Jesus is not an isolated event, but the fulfillment of God's promises through generations. Watching them place each ornament with reverence is a powerful reminder of how faith is handed down, one story at a time.

We are deeply grateful for our parish family, whose prayers and support sustain the mission of Regina Academy. Together, we are forming children who know, love, and serve the Lord with joy.

Blessings to you in this Advent season,
Brian Dulin, President
Regina Academy at St. John the Baptist
