FROM YOUR PASTOR

The Gospel passage is clearly a judgment on those who are unfaithful to the covenant with God; not caring for the community, using God's graces, blessings, and gifts for their own selfish motives than serving the community and rejecting God's prophets and leaders. Jesus is clearly stating that Kingdom of God will be taken away from those who are irresponsible and misusing the gifts of God.

This passage is a warning to all such religious leaders. The Son referred to here is Jesus Christ who is killed by the tenants. When we use Jesus or his name for our own sake, we are similar to those 'Pharisees and Chief priest,' in the passage. The difference is just that they killed Jesus once and we kill Jesus every day when we use him as a means to satisfy our selfish plans and motives. My dear friends in Is. 8: 14 – 15 we read, "The Lord will become a sanctuary, a stone one strikes against... And many among them shall stumble."

If we misuse the Cornerstone of the whole Christianity then we are surely going to be an obstacle to the project of God's Kingdom on earth. We can never defeat and cheat God's plan and God even if we try to the death. Therefore, we shall respond to his call and invitation. We shall take care of the vineyard that he has entrusted to us.

Sincerely in Our Lord
REV. S. LUCAS MSC
