From Your Pastor-

Today's readings invite us to reflect on justice, prayer and faithful stewardship – values deeply connected to the International Day of Peace. True peace cannot exist without justice.

In the first reading, prophet Amos condemns the Israelites who exploit the poor and manipulate economic systems for personal gain. He reminds us that God does not forget injustice. When the powerful exploit the weak, society becomes divided, and violence takes root. We are not only called to act justly in our business dealings or when dealing with those who work for us but also to raise our voices against injustice as faithful stewards. To do this we need to be rooted in prayer.

St. Paul exhorts us to pray for all people especially for leaders so that we may live in peace and dignity. In the Gospel, Jesus presents the dishonest steward who acts wisely because he understands the urgency of preparing for the future. Likewise, we are called to use our gifts wisely in building God's kingdom whose foundation is justice and peace.

If we prioritize material gain over human dignity, we become obstacles to God's kingdom. As followers of Christ, let us commit to justice, prayer and responsible stewardship. May our lives be a witness to true peace - peace that comes from living in God's truth and love.

As we observe the International Day of Peace, let us pray for an end to conflicts, discrimination and economic injustice and actively work toward reconciliation.

Yours in Jesus Christ,
Rev. S. Lucas, MSC
Pastor, St. John the Baptist Parish

PRAYERS TO ST. PEREGRINE

CATECHETICAL SUNDAY SEPTEMBER 21ST

Catholic Churches in the United States celebrate CATECHETICAL SUNDAY every year on the third Sunday of September.

Parishes are asked to bless and commission those who teach the Catholic

Faith and those who volunteer in any way in this ministry. Pope Francis elevated this ministry to a higher level of calling, during his papacy. Here at Saint John the Baptist Parish, on September 21 this year, Father Selvaraj Lucas, MSC, our Pastor, will bless and commission those who teach and volunteer in the P.R.E.P. Program and those who hand on the faith in the O.C.I.A. Please join with the Parish Community and the Universal Church to pray for and support these Grace-filled persons who share the Good News with our Youth, our Families, and those seeking to know and love God.
